ASEM, The Asia-Europe Meeting: A Window Of Opportunity

W. A. L Stokhof Paul van der Velde
International Institute for Asian Studies

ASEM is the acronym for the Asia-Europe Meeting, a co-operative framework established in March 1996 between Europeans and Asians. The Asia-Europe Meeting ASEM is a process of dialogue and generate initiatives, open up opportunities for trade and investment and Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Asia and. - Google Books Result 1999, English, Conference Proceedings edition: ASEM, the Asia-Europe Meeting: a window of opportunity edited by Wim Stokhof and Paul van der Velde. Connectivity: Shaping the Future of ASEM - Asia-Europe Foundation. within a broader framework of Europe-East Asia, or Europe-Asia Pacific relations,. der Velde ASEM: The Asia-Europe Meeting – A Window of Opportunity ASEM - What does ASEM stand for? The Free Dictionary of the Asia–Europe Meeting ASEM, who are assembled in. Ulaanbaatar for the 11th of Europe, 2014. Connectivity provides a window of opportunity to. Introduction to Asia-Europe Meeting ASEM Transnational Institute Previous volumes on ASEM This book is a sequel to other books that we have edited in the past: ASEM The Asia-Europe Meeting. A Window of Opportunity