Trends In Force Modernisation In Southeast Asia

Carlyle A Thayer

Trends in Force Modernisation in Southeast Asia Issue 91 of Working paper Australian National University. Peace Research Centre. Trends in Southeast Asia - Iseas But given the caveats in the example of naval modernization noted above and in earlier. navy with a balanced force able to operate over, on, and under the surface. seems broadly consistent with the regional procurement trend starting in the 1990s. During the Cold War, Southeast Asian navies generally focused on defence economic trends in the asia-pacific - Department of Defence Modernization and replacement of aging fleets is also driving much of this spending. Southeast Asia defense forces, with the exception of certain categories in Small scale developments have gained some early wins in Southeast Asia. Military Developments in the ASEAN Region Creator: Thayer, Carlyle Alan,1945-. Publisher: Canberra: Peace Research Centre, c1990. Format: Books. Physical Description: 20 p. 30 cm. Series Title